

(2) 28. (choose the best 2 answers) What should you do if you damage a boat or find damage?

- a. contact the WYC Faculty Advisor
- b. fill out a damage report and contact the Fleet Captain
- c. place "Out of Order" sign on the checkout board
- d. leave it alone; the Fleet Captain will repair it
- e. attempt to repair it if the repair is within your capabilities

TRUE OR FALSE

For EACH of the following letters, answer True (T) or False (F).

(6) 29. Good practice in the event of a man overboard is:

- a. approach the victim from his leeward.
- b. yell "Man Overboard!"
- c. throw him/her a floatation device.
- d. approach the victim from his windward.
- e. sail up to the victim with sails luffing to slow the boat.
- f. stop well short of the victim and have him/her swim to the boat.

(2) 30. Infraction of the Club's By-Laws is grounds for suspension.

(6) 31. Assume that you are in a self-rescuing boat that is capsizing.

- a. You should try to get on the centerboard as the boat goes over.
- b. If you do not make it on the centerboard before the mast hits the water, you should try to climb over the hull of the boat from inside the cockpit.
- c. If your boat turtles and the mast becomes stuck in the mud, bounce on the centerboard to free the mast from the bottom.

(7) 32. The following have right-of-way over sailboats in the Club's Novice and Intermediate sailing waters:

- a. Tugboats with barges.
- b. Boat towing water-skiers.
- c. All powered vessels.
- d. Vessels in the channel restricted by draft.
- e. Taxiing seaplanes.
- f. Vessels being overtaken.
- g. Swimmers.

(2) 33. Sailing in or near the shipping channel may be inappropriate when:

- a. There are boats limited by draft or weight in the channel.
- b. The channel is busy.